

Alain Paolini Speaker Bio

Alain Paolini is a business transformation executive with extensive US and international experience in talent management, organizational change management and sales/operations performance. He is sought after for his expertise and ability to lead change, shape, manage and deliver large-scale transformation, and help organizations develop new capabilities. Before joining Envision Business Consulting, Alain was a Partner with Accenture, a global management consulting firm and a Vice-President at Level 3 Communications (now CenturyLink). Alain earned a B.A. in International Business from NEOMA Business School (Rouen, France) and an M.S. in Industrial Administration from Purdue University. He currently serves as the Board Chair for Girls Inc. of Metro Denver and is the former Board Co-chair for the Leadership Investment/Women's Vision Foundation.