

Debbie Scheer

Debbie Scheer is a seasoned professional in auctioneering, emceeing, and public speaking. She calls Colorado home but brings her expertise to events worldwide. Debbie embarked on her journey in comedy over a decade ago, diversifying her skills to include producing comedy/education shows and emceeing events from intimate gatherings to crowds of thousands. Her versatility as an entertainer is evident in her adaptable approach when engaging with audiences.

Known for being a highly sought-after emcee and speaker, Debbie's dedication to cultivating audience connections through appropriate humor, combined with her commitment to charitable causes, led her to venture into the world of benefit auctioneering. Graduating from the World Wide College of Auctioneering in 2016, she became a licensed benefit auctioneer and fundraising partner, collaborating with numerous organizations and raising millions of dollars for nonprofits throughout the nation.
