

Career Growth Workshop November 2019 Speakers

Kelly Goering

Successful corporate business leader and entrepreneur with experience in managing collaborative work units, including connecting corporate fortune 50 company business opportunities to support subsidiary service unit projects that create world-class industry solutions. Kelly is a Certified Project Manager, Certified Scrum Master and Corporate Etiquette & International Protocol Consultant, trained in cross-cultural communication with a specific focus on corporate/business etiquette and cultural sensitivities.

Bonny Roberts

Bonny Roberts is the Director of Business Technology at Centura Health where she serves as the IT relationship manager and liaison for the business and consumer journeys. Bonny has spent half her career on the healthcare provider side and half on the vendor side. Career experience includes strategic IT roadmap development, application development and implementation, customer support, account management, sales operations and marketing. Bonny is passionate about furthering the growth of HIT activity along the Front Range and its impact on Colorado. She lives in Superior where she can be found hiking and biking with her dogs and family.